ANNUAL STAFF FOREWORD

We, the Annual Staff, proudly present the 1970 Thunderbolt. We hope that these pages have pictured many fond memories and will serve as a treasure chest for many years to come.

Because she has worked with us so patiently and contributed her talents so freely, we extend our sincere thanks to our sponsor, Mrs. Kathleen Slusher, and to the many others who have also contributed their time and effort.

With our theme To Live, To Laugh and To Love we present this 1970 publication of the Thunderbolt to you.

Dedication '70

Because of your ready efforts to help others, your deep understanding and dedication as a teacher, we the Senior Class of 1970, dedicate the '70 Thunderbolt to you...

R. C. Hay

We hope that through this we can show our appreciation of you and your readiness to share with us your many talents.

An active participant in all school activities.

Principal's Message

C. C. Short attended East Tennessee State University. He also attended the University of Tennessee where he received his B. S., V.P.I. and the University of Virginia where he received his M.A.

Congratulations on a job well done. The pictorial history of the final year's activities prepared by the annual staff will serve as a lasting tribute to this graduating class.

My association with this class has been pleasant and rewarding. I am well pleased with the progress made over the past five years.

Education is a continuous process for most and is only limited by the effort put forth by the individual; I hope that each of you takes advantage of the many opportunities to continue your formal education.

Good Luck,

C. C. Short

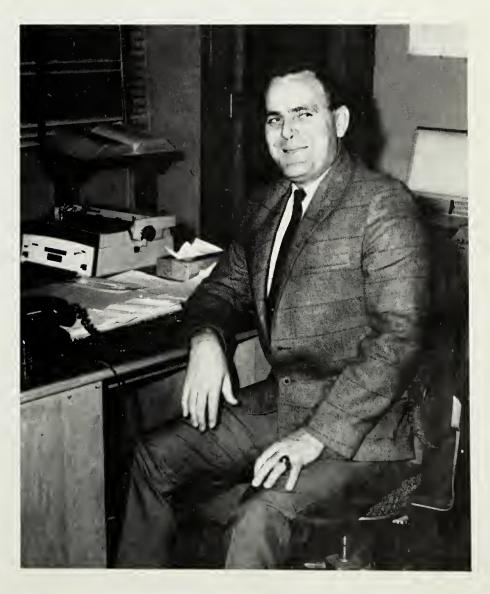

Assistant Principal's Message

I wish to take this opportunity to congratulate the senior class of 1970 for reaching a very important step in their lives - graduation from high school.

I also want to express my thanks to the students, teachers and employees of HHS for their wonderful cooperation in the improvement of the school.

I am the rose of Sharon, and the lily of the valleys. As the lily among thorns, so is my love among the daughters. As the apple tree among the trees of the wood, so is by beloved among the sons. I sat down under his shadow with great delight, and his fruit was sweet to my taste. He brought me to the banqueting house, and his banner over me was love. Stay with me flagons, comfort me with apples: for I am sick of love. His left hand is under my head, and his right doth embrace me. I charge you, O ye daughters of Jerusalem, by the roes, and by the hinds of the field, that ye stir not up, nor awake my love, till he please.

Co-Salutatorians

O friend, my bosom said,
Through thee alone the sky is arched,
Through thee the rose is red;
All things through thee take nobler form.
And look beyond the earth,
The mill-round of our fate appears,
A sun-path in thy worth.
Me too thy nobleness has taught
To master my despair;
The fountains of my hidden life
Are through thy friendship fair.

JANET BARBARA EDWARDS

Stone walls do not a prison make,
Nor iron bars a cage;
Minds innocent and quiet take
That for an hermitage;
If I have freedom in my love
And in my soul am free,
Angels alone, that soar above,
Enjoy such liberty.

I Love You

When April bends above me And finds me fast asleep, Dust need not keep the secret A live heart died to keep.

Above his roof the swallows, In notes like far-blown rain, Will tell the chirping sparrow Beside his window-pane.

O sparrow, little sparrow,
When I am fast asleep,
Then tell my love the secret
That I have died to keep

My Life Closed Twice

My life closed twice before its close;
It yet remains to see
If Immortality unveil
A third event to me,

So huge, so hopeless to conceive, As these that twice befell.

Parting is all we know of heaven, And all we need of hell.

Emily Dickinson

...To thine own self be true...
Shakespeare

The Years

The years went by and never knew
That each one brought me nearer you;
Their path was narrow and apart
And yet it led me to your heart Oh, sensitive, shy years, oh, lonely years,
That strove to sing with voices drowned
Into tears.

Sara Teasdale

JUST FOR TODAY

Life is a series of todays which so quickly turn into yesterdays that some of us spend our time looking regretfully backward. Still others, through worry or procrastination, are always waiting for tomorrow. In either case, there's the real danger of overlooking a very important day... today. For this is the place and the time for living. Let us live each day abundantly and beautifully while it is here.

Laughing Song - Blake

When the green woods laugh with the voice of joy, And the dimpling stream runs laughing by; When the air does laugh with our merry wit, And the green hills laughs with the noise of it;

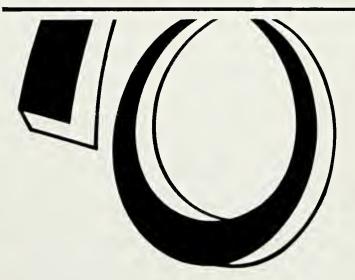

When the meadows laugh with lively green,
And the grasshopper laughs in the merry scene,
When Mary and Susan and Emily
With their sweet round mouths sing "Ha, Ha, He!"

When the painted birds laugh in the shade, When our table with cheeries and nuts in spread, Come live and be merry, and join with me, To sing the sweet chorus of "Ha, Ha, He!"
